

Voting Is Tuesday

SOUTHWEST -- Preparations for an elimination election that will bring Illinois closer to a new constitution are complete in the Southwest Will and Cook county areas.

The polls at the regular precinct locations will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. this coming Tuesday, Sept. 23.

To be selected are four persons from each state senatorial district. Their names will be placed on the ballot for a Nov. 18 general election of delegates in which two of the four in each district become the local representatives.

The Constitutional Convention convenes for the first time Dec. 8.

Clara Harlley Woodard, Will County clerk, said last week she expects the voter turn-out for this first round of balloting Tuesday will be "very disappointing."

She said more interest needs to be stimulated and stressed the importance of having the most qualified persons for the task of revising the state's constitution.

It was also noted that absentee ballot returns are lagging, as numbers of persons who brought their eligibility status up to date.

The Will County election machinery is ready, though. A test of IBM Vote-a-matic machines and tabulating computers operated by Illinois Bell Telephone Company was conducted in Joliet Friday. The punch card-data processing tabulating system will be in its third election in the county.

Preparations are also complete in Cook County where standard voting machines will be used. Like Will County, Cook County election judges and personnel have been elected and coached.

On the campaign trail for the past month and more are 33 candidates from the Southwest area, which includes the Lemont portion of Cook County, and the northeast quarter of Will County.

The more active candidates have been making debate appearances before organizations and citizen gatherings.

Oldsters Getting Break

By ED DECKER

LOCKPORT - Senior citizens were in the spotlight at the last meeting of the Board of Education, Lockport Township High Schools, District 205.

Ken Webster, administrative assistant to the superintendent and director of special projects, presented an outline of a program of interest to the elderly citizens of the area.

The Golden Card Club, as the program will be named, will permit those persons 60 years of age or older to attend many high school activities without charge. The program also would include tuition-free attendance at adult education classes.

When implemented the plan will include tours of the three area high schools, summer trips and other events of interest. A monthly newsletter will be sent to members near the end of each month. This letter will give a complete program of activities in the following month.

A gold card will be issued to each person joining the club. This card will be the key to many worthwhile ventures for those wishing to participate.

Mr. Webster estimated the administrative cost of the first year in operation would not exceed $100. All business incidental to the program would be handled through his office.

Superintendent Harold

Scholle noted the sixth day attendance each of the district's three high schools was as follows - East, 1,078; Central, 801; West, 1,998; boys, 2,015; girls, 1,854, with a total enrollment of 3,869.

Other items brought to the attention of the board by the superintendent were:

- A per capita tuition charge of $1,053.46 would be made if each student were to pay his or her fee.

- Health insurance costs for employees is up.

- A Title I project has been approved in the amount of $22,700.

- A pupil transportation claim of $44,047 has been submitted to the state and 91 percent of this sum has been approved.

- Expected payment of $25,880 for the driver education course which ended

LEMONT -- Two pedestrians crossing streets in Lemont were struck by automobiles on Sept. 10, both within three hours of each other.

The first accident occurred around 3:30 p.m. on Lemont Rd. near Bluff Rd. Robert J. Gorski, 16, of RR 2, Lemont Rd., was crossing Lemont Rd. when he was struck by a car driven by David Collins, 17, of 4736 Scott St., Downers Grove.

According to the DuPage County Police who covered the accident, Collins stopped abruptly causing the unidentified car behind him to strike him in the rear. Both Collins and Gorski are hospitalized at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet, where Gorski is listed in serious condition.

The other accident occurred at 215 Main St., in downtown Lemont around 6:50 p.m.

According to the Lemont Police, Michael Morrow, 5, of 216 Main St., darted in front of a pick-up truck driven by James DeVries of Joliet.

Mike was taken to Silver Cross Hospital by the Markiewicz Ambulance, where he was treated for multiple injuries, a possible skull fracture, and a fracture of the right shoulder. He was reported in satisfactory condition and released to his home.

Carrying 45-15 To State

By LOUISE SCHALLER

ROMEONVILLE -- The 45-15 school plan is ready to be submitted for state's approval, reported Ken Hermansen, District 96 Schools' superintendent, at last week's meeting.

He and two of his assistants, James Gove and Paul Swinford, were to go to Springfield and meet with the officers from the state office of public instruction regarding the plan.

Gove, administrative assistant, said progress has been made on the plans for installing telephone lines between West View Junior High and Park View. These lines will carry closed circuit TV instruction.

Leon Hyatt of Hyatt Electronics offered to install the necessary equipment for $1 because he is interested in this educational project.

Gove reported that Illinois Bell Telephone Company has not responded to his request for cost figures on the line installation.

Compumatics Inc. was awarded the bid to erect a steel prefabricated building to be used for housing and maintaining the district school buses. Cost is $48,000 excluding the water and sewer lines. The board said this is $16,000 below the previous bid which they had rejected.

Foundation repairs at West View Junior High will be done by Cabay Construction.

Robert Shoop, architect's representative, gave a progress report on the schools of the district. Ridge View in Hampton Park opened Sept. 1 as promised. Minor items need to be completed. Air conditioning in classrooms is completed at Valley View. Boiler room at Valley View is now being air conditioned. Acoustical work has been completed in the West View gym.

Zoning and planning board will meet Sept. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Civic Center with Romeoville trustees regarding the zoning of the garage facility reported Attorney Eugene Korst.

Adoption of the school levy was discussed and tabled for the next session.

Enrollment for the six district schools is 5,292 students including 84 special education students. Valley

Tax Could Cover Bonds

By GLENN LOGAN

NEW LENOX -- With no market for its revenue bonds and facing an ultimatum by the State Water Board to expand and improve its sewage treatment plant, the New Lenox Village board has adopted an ordinance setting Oct. 4 as the date of a referendum on a $300,000 issue of general obligation bonds.

These bonds would carry an interest rate not to exceed seven per cent.

The village of New Lenox has been attempting to sell $1,200,000 in revenue bonds for the past year to finance a central water system as well as enlarge and improve the sewerage treatment plant.

The State Water Board is well acquainted with the plight of New Lenox and its members sympathize but fact remains that the treatment plant is inadequate and until the necessary improvements are made any further building is stymied.

Before sewer lines can be extended to serve new areas or present areas, it was pointed out, the developer or the municipality must get approval from the State Water Board. And what the water board is saying now, according to communications re-

Back Mayor On Land Suit

By ED DECKER

LOCKPORT -- The Lockport City Council met Monday night and was informed that a suit had been filed Sept. 9 against the District 91 School Board.

The suit contests the district's title to the Central Grade School property. The suit, initiated by Mayor George Nordstrom, without the consent of the Council, was prepared by the law firm of Saxon and Niznik of Plainfield.

Nordstrom's defense of his independent action centered around the fact that he is mayor and he did not have time to convene a special meeting of the council prior to the announced selling date of the property. Sept. 12 was the date bids were to be opened by the District 91 school board. No bids were received.

Several councilmen were upset over the action taken by the mayor. They voiced objections and voted against the resolution. Those voting against were councilmen Len Strahanoski and Swen Nelson. The remaining six councilmen voted to pursue the matter and approve the mayor's course of action.

The council requested that a representative of the law firm be asked to appear before the next meeting of the council to discuss in detail any further action that might be undertaken.

Nordstrom's suit, if successful, would return control of the grade school land to the city.

In other action the council:

-- Approved a resolution to expend $35,000 of motor fuel tax fund money in installation of a complete traffic light system at the junction of Illinois Rt. 7 and 8th St.

This undertaking will include widening of the intersection, culvert extension and grading.

-- Approved a request by the police department to purchase three M-1 Carbines, three 12-gauge shotguns and 500 rounds ammunition for each type weapon. In addition, the purchase will include 8 tear gas grenades and a grenade launcher.

-- Approved a fall trash pick-up Oct. 11 for Wards 1 and 2, and Oct. 18 for Wards 3 and 4. No rocks, tree limbs or garbage will be picked up on these days.

-- Approved a resolution requiring the owner of a building at 429 E. 10th St. to repair the structure to comply with local ordinances within 15 days or the city will request a court order permitting demolition of the structure.

Gleaners Award Pins To 50-Year Members

By VIRGINIA SASS

LOCKPORT -- Fifty-year members of the Maple Street Arbor of Gleaners were honored on Sept. 6, at a program at the Homer School gym. Pins and letters of congratulation from the National Gleaner Life Insurance Society were presented to James D. Frazer, Route 1, Lockport; Harry K. Sproat, Route 2, Joliet; and posthumously for Mrs. Thomas D. Cooper of Princeton, Ill.

Honorees unable to attend were Lawrence Koehler, Manhattan; Thomas D. Cooper, Princeton; Fred G. Lauffer, Mokena; and Lewis M. Cleveland, Martin, Mich. Cleveland's father, William J. Cleveland, was a charter member of the Arbor.

A special program, arranged by Mrs. Eugene Anderson, was presented by Harwood Stellwagen, master of ceremonies. After the pledge to the flag, Mary Jane Stellwagen sang, "God Bless America." "Deep Purple" was sung by Verda Joe Sass. Sandra Francis was accompanied by Jo Anne Cass as she sang, "High Lilly - High Low".

Frazer, known in many areas as "Mr. Gleaner", spoke. He served the arbor as secretary and agent for 42 years, from 1920 to 1962. He is presently counsellor for the Arbor and continues to serve as an agent. He has also served the society on state and national committees.

Frazer related accounts from the history of the Arbor from its beginning on March 5, 1910 and directed attention to the original charter of the Arbor which was on display. "Most Arbors were formed about this time," he said, "And all the mud roads led to Gleaner Halls, the centers of community activity."

Although Maple Street never owned a hall, regular meetings and social affairs have been held thru the years. Dances, sponsored by the Arbor, were first held in the Grange Hall in New Lenox and then later in the New Lenox Colonial Hall. These dances, which were always held on the first Friday of each month and on holidays, will be long-remembered. An annual "oyster-stew" was also a popular event of the Arbor for many years.

Frazer and Sproat reminisced of early meetings which were held in the old Marley School House. They were both initiated during meetings there in 1919.

After a prayer in memory of Mrs. Cooper who died in July, the program closed with a vocal solo, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" by Sandra Francis.

Refreshments were served by the committee with Mr. and Mrs. Stellwagen as chairmen. Visitors from other Arbors were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfe, West Lockport and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kinzler, Foss.

Fire House Bids Zoom, Seek Cut

NEW LENOX -- Trustees of the New Lenox Fire Protection District are hopeful of finally arriving at a plan and a figure that will enable them to let a contract for building a new fire house. It will be at the intersection of Cedar Rd. and Maple Lane.

Bids opened last week were approximately 30 per cent over the architect's estimate and the board has taken them under advisement. It hopes the architects, Gerding, Wardrum and Richards, can trim the plans enough to fit in with the contractor's price, if it is finally written with a real sharp pencil.

The district has approximately $100,000 to spend on the proposed fire house. According to the trustees it is possible that it could go over this figure, for a limited amount.

Four contractors bid on the job and the lowest bid was that of Sam S. Molaschi and Sons, of Joliet for $129,449. The other bidders and their bids were Arbanas & Fugett, Joliet, $134,900; Ben B. Cabay, Joliet, $137,280 and T. L. Mortensen, Mokena (Arbury Hills) $140,800.

The district has a fire house on Church St., south of the Rock Island tracks. It keeps a piece of equipment on the north side of the tracks but it is inadequate to cope with any major fire.

A station is needed on the north side, it was pointed out by John E. Francis, president of the board of trustees, to protect homes in that territory. Cedar Rd. is the only east-west route through the village and the Rock Island crossing is frequently blocked so there could be serious delay in getting equipment to a fire north of the tracks, Francis said. To remedy this the district wants an engine house in that area.

The principal reason for the high bids, according to a representative of the architectural firm, is that the nature of the soil in the site area requires extra foundations.

The foundations cannot be changed, Francis said, but there are other things that can be altered or eliminated which could reduce the cost. The architects are busy on proposed plan changes.

Elect 2 To Bank Board

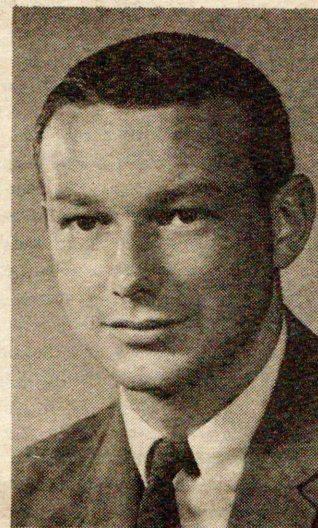

LOCKPORT--Two men have been elected to the board of directors of the First National Bank of Lockport, according to Donald O'Toole, chairman of the board. They are Charles Gaskill and Ronald Lubick.

Gaskill, a graduate of the State University of Iowa, has a degree in marketing. After graduation in 1964, he began his training with the Pullman Bank in Chicago. He was named assistant manager of the marketing department for the independent member banks of the Pullman Banking Group. He is currently a vice president in charge of industrial and commercial lending division.

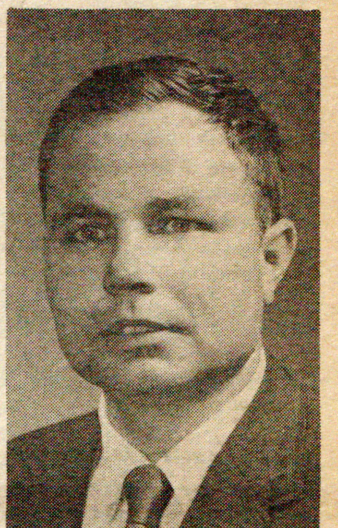

Gaskill and his wife, Susan Kay, live in New Lenox with their two children, Lauren Jane, five, and Matthew Jay, one.

Lubick, a partner and general manager of Lubick Welding and Fabricating Service located at 3100 Lockport Rd., attended the University of Illinois and majored in engineering. He is a member of the Joliet Region Chamber of Commerce, American Management Association, American Welding Society and the Lockport Loyal Order of Moose.

Lubick and his wife, Carol, have a daughter, Alette. The Lubicks have lived in the Lockport area all their lives.

Get Special Census Underway

FRANKFORT -- Beginning Saturday, Sept. 20, a special census will be taken in the village of Frankfort.

Robert Jackson, from the Census Bureau of the U.S. Department of Commerce, who will supervise the work here is scheduled to arrive Friday.

Headquarters will be in the village hall where he will interview the enumerators in the morning and then conduct a school to instruct them in their duties. They will be paid at the rate of 8-cents a name.

One of the requirements for enumerators is that they must be willing to devote some evening hours to the task in order to get in touch with persons who may not be home in the daytime.

The village accompanied its request to the Department of Commerce for a special census with a check for $600 as partial payment. The pay of the supervisor is met by the village, plus expenses and pay for enumerators. Final cost will not be known until the job is finished. Some guesses place the figure between $800 and $900.

The reason for taking a special census now is to gain more revenue from the state. The last session of the legislature has raised the share of local governments in the motor fuel tax fund from approximately $5 per capita to approximately $6. Therefore, a gain in population for the Village of Frankfort will mean more money for the village for road building and maintenance.

Frankfort had a population of 1,545 when an official special census was taken of the entire township in March, 1965. Since that time a considerable number of people have moved into the village, officials say.

The current census should be completed within a week or 10 days, according to the Census Bureau.

When bureau makes its official report, a copy will be forwarded to Springfield.

Budget Is Fixed At $810,374

MOKENA -- Immediately following a public hearing last Wednesday night (Sept. 10) the Mokena Grade School board adopted its 1969-70 budget totaling $810,374.

A breakdown shows the educational fund, which takes care of salaries and operating expenses, including books and other materials and supplies, and $62,850 for the building fund, which the maintenance of school buildings and sites.

The amount is larger this year than usual, it was explained, because of some major repairs at Carpenter Street School required by the state's Safety Code.

The budget also includes $78,391 to retire bonds and pay interest on those outstanding used to build schools. Then there is $131,338 to pay for completion of Willowcrest primary school. This sum is the balance of the proceeds from the bond sale held in August.

Also in the budget is $26,200 for the purchase and operation of buses for the transport of pupils and there is an item of $6,250 for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, which provides pension benefits for non-certificated personnel.

In other business the board authorized James Ennis, superintendent, to file the 1069 tax levy with Clara Hartley Woodard, County Clerk, before the Sept. 23 deadline.

The levy calls for $175,000 for the educational fund; $41,000 for the building fund; $7,000 for a special working cash fund; $8,000 for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund; $7,000 for fire prevention and safety work at Carpenter and Willowcrest schools; $1,200 for liability insurance, and $3,000 for a special education fund for classrooms for the Lincoln-Way special education coop.

Adjusting To Enrollment Hike

FRANKFORT -- The Frankfort grade school district No. 157-C, has adopted the budget which has been on file for public inspection for weeks. The budget totals $803,750.50, as previously published.

Of this amount the educational fund is set at $303,483; the building fund at $26,100; bond and interest, $28,977.50; transportation, $21,890; municipal retirement fund, $3,300 and site and construction fund (this represents the bond issue approved earlier) of $420,000.

One thing the building program has done is to cancel the fun fair night formerly held in conjunction with Halloween. It was an annual event but the school board voted to discontinue it.

The enrollment has increased to an extent where it would be difficult to continue with the fun fair as it had been and remodeling and repair work at Frankfort School would prevent its observance anyway. The board decided to end it now.

It was pointed out that the building program is expected to bring about more changes in scheduling before the year is over.

Enrollment this year has taken quite a jump over that of a year ago. On Sept. 10 last year the enrollment was 525, this year it was 619 on that date. There are 393 in Frankfort School, 206 in Chelsea, 10 in special education classes and 10 in a dual program.

Brunswick Co. was awarded the contract for shelving and storage equipment at Chelsea. Its bid was $7,584.15. A bid from Carroll Seating Co. of $10,252 was rejected.

A report was given the board by Donald Stupp on the special education cooperative, and Perry Friedman, band director, gave an evaluation of the summer band program.

The board will hold its next meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 22 in the Frankfort school library.

Acquire School Site

The initial attempt of District 91, Kelvin Grove-Milne Grove Schools, to divest itself of the Central Grade School in downtown Lockport has come and gone. Not one bid was received.

On Sept. 12 the district was to open bids received for this choice parcel of real estate with a minimum bid of $225,000 as acceptable purchase price.

Whether this minimum figure was too high is not relative to this opinion.

The legal ownership of the property has been questioned by the Civic and Commerce Association of Lockport. Original deeding of the property was to the city as a public square with the land being a donation.

A later deed transferred ownership of the property to the school district. This deed is now being challenged.

Lockport has only one park area worthy of note and is to be commended for the preservation of this acreage at the Southern limits of the city. Another park is needed. The location of the Central Grade School would seem to be an ideal and easily acceptable solution to the need.

If the city fathers feel the pulse of the public and interpret the growing trend toward open space in downtown areas, their logical conclusion must be one of retaining this property for the city.

The lofty value placed upon this land indicates the school district has correctly foreseen the growth pattern of downtown Lockport. The present or potential actual or acceptable, worth of this property is of prime importance. Is the property worth more in dollars to the school district than it is in esthetic appeal and need?

If a referendum is required in permitting the Lockport Township Park District to acquire this site, so be it. Give the public the opportunity to decide the issue. Considering the abortive attempt of the district to sell the school, this decision would seem to be in the interest of all.

Bridge The Gap

Those three bridges on Route 83 that collectively span the Ship and Sanitary Canal, the DesPlaines River, the I&M Canal, the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio and the Santa Fe railroads should be back in business Nov. 15.

This is the latest word from a rather concerned State Department of Highways. It's something to look forward to by the thousands of persons who've been displaced since 10 a.m. June 16. The detour is involved and somewhat out of the way. It's certainly irritating.

But before the state highway department is summarily damned for five months of inconvenience, it is interesting to hear what the alternative could have been. Public officials had a choice to make and they opted in favor of what they saw as the greater public good.

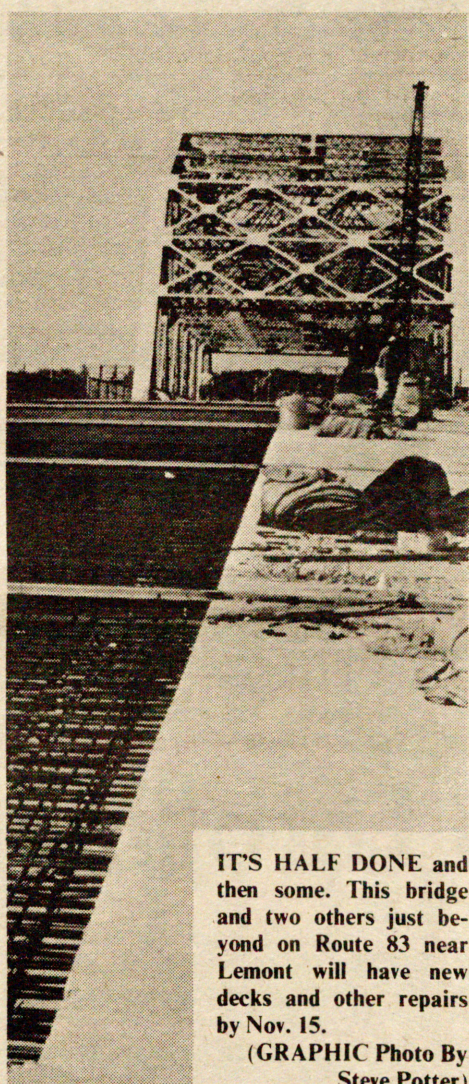

The plan that didn't make it was to repair the aging and deteriorating bridge structures over a two-year period. To completely replace the decks of the three bridges and repair crumbling concrete supports and rusting steel would have meant only one lane would be open to carry alternating two-way traffic for the first year, according to George March, district traffic engineer. There would be no other way because of the design of the bridges.

Officials considered the hazards, delays, inconvenience, finances and public tolerance, he says, and made the decision in favor of an expedited effort to get it over with as quickly as possible.

The price tag is $1.7 million and the three contractors involved were told to get the work done by Nov. 15. There's a $1,000 a day penalty if the deadline is not met.

March noted that deterioration of concrete supports was more severe than thought, and there would be some cause for a justifiable delay. But, he says, work is only three days behind right now.

The fact is that the public does not care for any additional harassment as it drives from one place to the next in this day and age. Roads are not too well maintained, they're crowded and they're slow. No one likes a detour, or a maddening wait to get moving in a single lane of traffic.

IT'S HALF DONE and then some. This bridge and two others just beyond on Route 83 near Lemont will have new decks and other repairs by Nov. 15.

The decision of the state highway department is the difference between five months and two years of frustration.

Beware Of Hustlers

From Washington come news dispatches to the effect that the Federal Trade Commission is panting for war against the hustlers of magazine subscriptions who have been mulching thousands of victims for many years.

It is to be hoped that the report is true. There are a lot of people fleeced every year in this manner. Several years ago an elderly man in the area was stuck with a long term contract that cost him several hundred dollars before the publications involved finally released their hold and let him get up.

A congressman from Pennsylvania, Rep. Fred B. Rooney, who is urging the FTC to take action, in a letter to the commission chairman, Paul R. Dixon, declared, "that the magazine subscription sales industry is thriving today on misrepresentation and fraud."

He outlined various situations:

A family paid $180 for yearly subscriptions to five magazines in a package deal that they could have had for $120 if they had subscribed to each one separately.

Like the case mentioned as occurring in the area, an 80-year old man was conned into taking a 10-year subscription package.

Sometimes a subscriber who signs for five magazines for five years, finds himself getting seven magazines but for a shorter period of time.

Then there is the man or woman who tells prospective customers they will get the magazines "free." The subscribers discover too late that they are stuck for hundreds of dollars over a period of several years for "handling and mailing."

Another source of income for the racketeers engaged in selling magazines is the renewal of contracts without permission from the subscribers.

There are legitimate magazine subscription salesmen, including clubs and schools, and people can deal with them or directly with the magazines they really want.

The FTC is reportedly concerned with the sales pitches used by the hustlers. The government bureau is reportedly disappointed that a supposed voluntary policing effort by the industry hasn't been effective. It shouldn't be. The commission should know that the fast buck boys never cease their hunting voluntarily. Usually it takes a lot of coercion to get them to mend their ways.

Some of these people use the telephone for their pitch but most go from door to door. The girls who engage in the racket generally concentrate on offices where they can use their wiles on men.

If they do go to homes they are choosy, visiting only those where there are elderly men who spend much of their time alone. The girls know they can't sell the women. And believe it or not, there are some hardnosed guys still ringing doorbells to sell magazines to pay their way through college.

These birds don't need to go to college. They are very smart now in the ways to make an easy buck and a fast one too and can give a lot of people a very liberal education for a fee, naturally.

There is a little something in the law that gives a person a break. There is a little clause that gives a person the right to cancel a contract or purchase within 72 hours, regardless of what it covers. Trouble is not enough people know this or think about it in time.

Another way to stay out of trouble is to say, "No."

What Age Is It?

Up until the dawn of this century, most folks lived and died within one "age," whether it was the stone age, ice age, the age of chivalry, or the more rapidly moving era that came after the Industrial Revolution.

Now, if you are 50 or over, you were born in the machine age, went into the atomic age in '45, jumped from that into the electronic age.

More recently, you have passed through the thermonuclear age and are now in the space age.

They used to last for two or three hundred years, and now they're changing faster than a high school girl changes costumes. --

U. S. Military: Will It Stay On Okinawa?

By MARGARET THOMPSON

(Copyright 1969, Congressional Quarterly Inc.)

WASHINGTON — U.S. relations with Japan will be facing a critical test in mid-September, when Japanese Foreign Minister Kiichi Aichi is in Washington.

The focus of his discussions with Administration officials will be the future U.S. military presence on Okinawa and the island's political reversion to Japan.

Both governments hope that a sound agreement can be reached during Aichi's visit, but significant differences of opinion still must be bridged.

The urgency of an Okinawa settlement was recently underscored by a Japanese Embassy spokesman. "Okinawa is the number one issue in Japanese politics today. It is also the biggest problem facing U.S.-Japanese relations," he said.

U.S. officials agree that a satisfactory arrangement on Okinawa's political future and the status of U.S. bases there is a prerequisite for continued close ties with America's major Pacific ally.

Danger to Treaty

The outcome of talks will have an important bearing on the prospects for continuing the 1960 U.S.-Japan Treaty of Mutual Cooperation and Security — by which the two parties pledged to come to each other's defense if attacked in Japanese territory. The treaty also permits the United States to operate military installations on the Japanese mainland.

The pact is automatically extended on June 23, 1970. Thereafter either signatory can revise or, on one year's notice, end the alliance.

The Nixon Administration and the Liberal-Democratic government of Premier Eisaku Sato are firmly committed to the treaty. But they differ on its extension to Okinawa. Moreover, if progress is not made on the Okinawa political and military issues before next June, sentiment will build up among Japanese left-wing circles to end or weaken the treaty.

Political Reversion

Premier Sato is under increasing public pressure to obtain a firm date for reversion of Okinawa and the other islands of the Ryukyu chain to Japanese political administration. The islands' one million inhabitants have been governed by a U.S. high commissioner since 1945.

Although the United States has always acknowledged Japan's residual sovereignty over the islands, the Government has postponed return because it has felt that surrendering political control could lead to curbs on U.S. use of the military bases. Unrestricted use of the $2-billion Okinawa complex has been considered essential to Far Eastern peace and security.

It is commonly thought that if Mr. Sato returns from his November visit to Washington without a concrete U.S. pledge, his political career will be ended. U.S.-Japanese relations, and the continuation of the mutual security treaty, could be seriously endangered as a result.

Base Status

The Sato government contends that at the time of reversion, use of the Okinawan bases should be governed by the limitations now applying to bases in Japan proper. Tokyo wants the "prior consultation" clause of the mutual security treaty to apply to use of Okinawan facilities for all combat operations not directly related to Japan's defense.

Responding to the country's deep-seated "nuclear allergy," the Sato government has pledged not to possess, manufacture or use nuclear weapons on territory under its control.

Article 9 of the Japanese "peace constitution" forbids the maintenance of armed forces on Japanese territory, except in a defensive capacity.

So, when Okinawa is politically reincorporated, Tokyo will be under pressure to obtain removal of nuclear weapons and termination of B-52 Viet Nam bombing sorties.

Nuclear Issue

The Japanese have argued that Asian defense no longer requires nuclear stockpiles on Okinawa, since development of long-range and Polaris missiles has diminished the value of potential nuclear operations from close-in.

The opinion of U.S. defense experts is divided. Many Administration officials believe that removing the weapons would invite aggression by Communist China and North Korea.

Recognizing the strength of Japanese feeling on the matter, however, the Nixon Administration may be willing to consider removal as a possible condition for retaining free use of the bases in emergencies.

Free-Use Question

The "free use" issue is the most disturbing to U.S. negotiators. Washington wants concrete assurances that prior consultation could mean Japanese approval rather than a veto of offensive operations.

The Sato government has indicated it might allow the bases to revert to "free use" status in cases of "serious emergency." U.S. negotiators want these cases spelled out in detail in a written agreement binding on future governments.

The Japanese would prefer a less specific verbal agreement founded on good faith. They have argued that it would be politically impossible for Sato to agree to the U.S. terms.

The issue is further complicated by conflicting definitions of a "serious emergency." Tokyo apparently considers that an invasion of South Korea or Nationalist China could warrant reversion to free use. The United States, however, would extend this to such incidents as the 1968 seizure of the U.S. espionage ship Pueblo by North Korea.

U.S. Defense Posture

Differences between the two governments have been shaped by their unequal defense responsibilities in the Far East. The United States has wide-ranging security commitments to 14 nations, while Japan has avoided a military role in Asia.

President Nixon has indicated, however, that no additional Far Eastern defense pledges will be made by his Administration and that, in the future, the United States will be less willing to jump in immediately to counter internal subversion or less-than-massive acts of local aggression by a non-nuclear power. The new direction has been hailed on Capitol Hill, where a desire to limit U.S. military involvement is running high.

Watch For Legal Traps In Homebuying

SOUTHWEST — If you own a home, or plan to own one someday, there are some things that you should know to stay out of legal trouble.

Just as automobile drivers must be familiar with traffic laws, property owners should know something about the laws dealing with home purchase agreements, home improvements, joint ownership, the protection of property and other matters that have legal overtones.

The Illinois State Bar Association has devised the following 10-question quiz covering some of the laws of importance to homeowners. Check your answers with the correct ones and you'll know how well you would have fared if you acted on the basis of your present knowledge.

1. A written offer to buy a home becomes a legally binding contract: a) as soon as the buyer signs the offer. b) as soon as it bears the signatures of both buyer and seller, c) only after all other legal papers are signed.

3. A home improvement contractor is out of luck if he can't collect from the owner that ordered the work. True or false?

the case of the death of one the survivor will automatically be the sole owner. True or false?

5. A fence may be located exactly on the property line. True or false?

6. If a person's home is condemned to make room for a public project, he is entitled to more than the fair market value because of the inconvenience and moving expenses. True or false?

7. Ordinarily the signatures of both husband and wife on the deed are needed to transfer their real estate to another party. True or false?

8. If someone tries to break into your home, the law allows you to: a) shoot to kill, b) do nothing except call police, c) use only the force you reasonably believe is necessary to protect your house and its occupants.

9. A written contract for home improvements: a) should be very general because of the uncertain nature of the work, b) isn't necessarily advisable, c) should specifically describe the work to be done, materials to be used, date of completion and price to be paid.

10. An agreement for the purchase of a house is automatically cancelled if the buyer cannot obtain financing. True or false?

Drinking Spouse

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I am now 43 but I was married at an early age and have raised four children, all of whom are now married. I work but I am a very lonely woman. My husband has become an alcoholic and thinks only of himself. I have thought of leaving him but I know he would then run through everything we have worked so hard to acquire. Don't advise me to get help for his drinking problem. I have tried but was told that he is the one who must seek help if this problem is to be solved. Is this true?

C.C., Chicago, Ill.

Dear C.C.:

YOU can get help that, in turn, can help your husband — through an organization called Al-Anon. If you cannot find it listed in the telephone directory, check listings under "Alcoholism" or "Alcoholics Anonymous: Information for Families." AA can direct you to one of the Al-Anon offices in your city.

Al-Anon was established to help spouses and family members understand and effectively cope with the problems leading to alcoholism. Many members are eventually able to motivate the alcoholic himself into seeking help. Although the organization is especially active in metropolitan cities, help is available to residents of rural and isolated areas, too. Contact Al-Anon, P.O. Box 182, Madison Square Station, New York, N.Y. 10010 for further information. In some rural areas, an Al-Anon member living nearby contacts the inquirer and together they form the nucleus of a new Al-Anon group with a common goal.

Menopausal Dizziness

Dear Miss Brookfield:

How long does it take after the menopause for a woman to feel normal again? Mine occurred over a year ago. Friends tell me it will be three to five years before the biological adjustments are completed. Is this true? Among other problems, if I try to walk any distance I feel as if I am drunk. I don't know myself anymore.

A.D., South Hadley, Mass.

Dear A.D.:

The best advice we can offer is: ask your physician. The complaint you mention may be due to a deficiency of the hormone estrogen. If so, many medical authorities recommend estrogen supplements to relieve the uncomfortable symptoms of this period.

How long does the menopause last? Actually, the word "menopause" only refers to a single event: the cessation of the menses. The so-called "change of life," however, covers a period of time before, during and after the menopause. The average premenopausal period begins somewhere between the ages of 40 and 49, and the postmenopausal stage begins at the average age of 53. Each of these periods is characterized by different symptoms and hormone patterns. Some women complain of nervousness, irritability or anxiety; others of hot flashes, night sweats, joint pains, itching of the skin and dizziness. The duration of the "change" varies with each individual. It may be less than a year; it may last two or three years or in some cases, somewhat longer.

A Short Question

Dear Miss Brookfield:

Would you believe a husband who says he was "working late" and then comes home with lipstick on his shirt?

M.K., Portland, Ore.

Dear M.K.:

No. Would you?

Have you a problem as a mature woman, or with one? For advice and help, write to Margaret Brookfield, Information Center on the Mature Woman, 3 West 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bell of 11128 Parker St., Mokena announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Patricia Lee to Orville R. Phillips, 1322 E. Herbert George officiating. All relatives and friends are invited to attend both the wedding and reception immediately following in the church hall.

Let Kids Pack Lunches

SOUTHWEST -- "Mom, this lunch you packed turns me off!"

Sound familiar, mom?

If your school children complain about the "same old thing" in their packed lunches, maybe it's time you turned the lunch packing duties over to them.

Here's how to help them get organized to begin packing "groovy" and nutritious lunches they'll enjoy . . . saving you that extra time each day for other home-making activities.

Designate a special lunch packing center in your kitchen. Select a section of counter near the refrigerator or freezer. Be sure a cutting board and drawer are handy, too. Fill the drawer with lunch box necessities like: napkins, plastic utensils, paper bags, plastic beverage or soup containers, a jar of "milk money" change, and Handi-Wrap for sandwich and food wrapping.

Assign a shelf in your refrigerator for lunch food supplies like butter, spreads, cold cuts, cheeses and fruits.

Each child can prepare and refrigerate his lunch the evening before each school day or make an entire week's supply of lunches on the weekend and freeze the sandwiches. Wrapped frozen sandwiches can be taken from the freezer each morning and placed in the lunch bag to thaw by noon. Prefrozen or chilled foods will be fresher and tastier.

Sandwiches should be stored not longer than two weeks at 0 degrees F. or below in a home freezer or one week at 10 degrees F. in the freezer compartment of a refrigerator. Thaw them at room temperature while still in their wrappings to assure freshness.

All kinds of fresh breads freeze satisfactorily, but not all fillings do. Mayonnaise and salad dressings tend to separate when frozen and are not recommended because of this.

Garnishes and foods that cannot be frozen like tomato slices, lettuce or juicy pickles, can be wrapped and refrigerated separately and slipped into the lunch bag that morning.

Once your teenagers or even the younger ones get the knack of daily or once-a-week assembly line lunch packing, you'll be happier and they'll eat heartier every school day!

To Drop Pounds

SOUTHWEST -- Is your weight under control?

The Joliet YMCA is offering a Sleet and Slim exercise course for figure re-fashioning and weight control.

The course gets underway Monday, Sept. 22, at 7 p.m. Mrs. Lois Bryan, new YMCA assistant women's director, is instructor for the 10-week session.

"The value of exercise in becoming 'slim' is not in losing weight but in conditioning or firming up the body, as weight is actually removed by better eating habits. However, a moderate amount of exercise can, by releasing nervous tension, help to control the appetite," Mrs. Bryan said.

Phone 726-5361 and ask for the women's division for more information. There is a $10 fee for non-members and a $2 fee for members.

Plan Annual Bake Sale

Introducing the 1970 Buicks.

Three of 36 great new Buicks.
Three of the finest Buicks ever.
Built with all the care and craftsmanship possible.
Built with product integrity.
Right down to the fine details.
As a few of these fine details will prove.

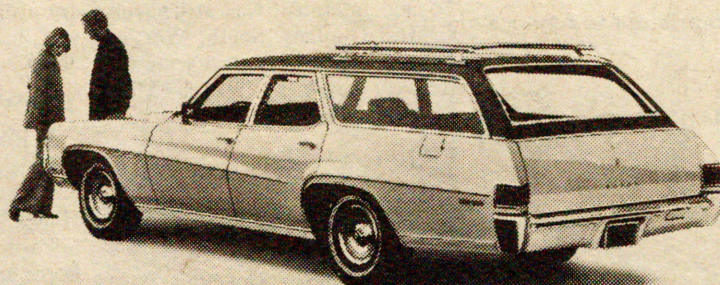

Every 1970 Buick has a new cooling system that should never ever overheat. • Every 1970 Buick equipped with a V8 engine has an exclusive carburetor time modulated choke control. It will make for easy starts in any weather. • Every 1970 Buick is equipped with fiberglass belted tires as standard equipment. • Every 1970 LeSabre, Wildcat, Estate Wagon, Electra 225 and Riviera has an exclusive suspension system called AccuDrive. Never has handling been easier. • All the 1970 Buicks have the look that makes people look twice.

No wonder Buick owners will keep on buying Buicks. Buicks are automobiles you can believe in.

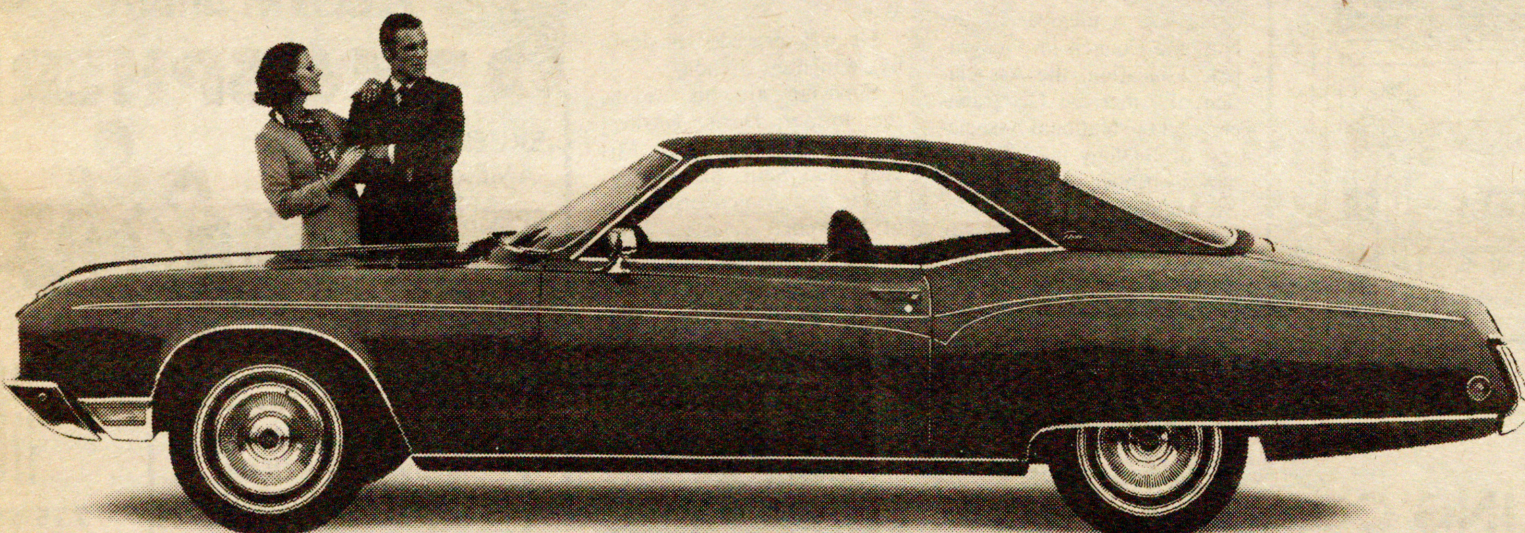

Something to believe in.

1970 Buick LeSabre Custom 2-door Hardtop. With a 124-inch wheelbase. Now available with a 455-cubic inch V8.

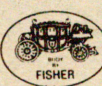

1970 Buick Estate Wagon. Totally new. A full size wagon with a 124-inch wheelbase. The longest you can buy.

1970 Buick Riviera. An all new 455-cubic inch V8 combined with a beautifully behaved 3-speed automatic transmission are a small part of what's standard.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

BGA Has Picks

SOUTHWEST -- The Better Government Association has announced its endorsements for candidates in the Constitutional Convention primary Sept. 23.

Because the new constitution that convention delegates will draw-up "will have a profound influence on the lives of citizens of this state for many years to come," said BGA executive director Richard Friedman, elected delegates "... must maintain complete objectivity and comprehend the complex problems confronting us..."

He pointed out that the constitution, once drafted, will be submitted to the voters. But he stressed that the authors have a responsibility that "transcends partisanship and narrow self-interest."

The BGA has consistently made endorsements of candidates in elections at all levels.

The BGA endorsements for local Con-Con candidates are:

9th District (Lemont area): Terrel E. Clark, Joseph T. Meek, Ollie E. Stone.

40th District (northmost Will County): Jane Shugg Elkins, William T. Grant, Helen S. Harshbarger, Helen C. Kinney, Anthony Peccarelli, J. Glenn Schneider, Robert W. Shoemaker and James W. Smith.

41st District (Will County): Daniel L. Kennedy, Arthur T. Lennon, Arthur J. O'Donnell, George E. Sangmeister.

In the Sept. 23 election, the four top vote getters in each district will be placed on the ballot for the Nov. 18 general election of delegates. In that election two of the four persons on the ballot in each state senatorial district will be selected as delegates.

Harshbarger, James W. Smith, Jane Shugg Elkins, Anthony M. Peccarelli, William T. Grant, J. Glenn Schneider and James H. Clark.

Candidates from the 41st District of Will County are Arthur T. Lennon, Gus W. Steen, Arthur J. O'Donnell, Louis F. Bollino, Daniel L. Kennedy, Eugene L. House, Lee D. Edwards, Stanley Hubbs, Yernon L. Young, James J. O'Connell and George E. Sangmeister.

The candidates in the 9th District in Cook County are Joseph T. Meek, Richard C. Reinke, Bruno L. Sendera, Terrel E. Clarke, William E. Cairnes, Harry Raday, Stewart M. Loebe, Jennifer Hance, Joan Anderson, Patrick Joseph Lehnere, Edward R. Zwicker, Marvin C. Chandler and Ollie E. Stone.

By ED DECKER

Winning is more than talent, bench strength and hoopla. It takes a measure of each plus the one ingredient that every winner has ... desire.

Mel Deskin, coach of the Lockport West Spartans, was talking as we walked toward the practice field where his 34 hopefuls were warming up for their afternoon practice session.

"We have good men. We're fast and should be able to improve over last year."

Then with some reluctance, it seemed, he noted the team lacked "character." Maybe it was the heat or it could be just the idea of coming back to school. Whatever the reason the situation had to be resolved before Sept. 13 when the Spartans met Downers Grove South.

Coach Deskin is high on John Highland who will call the shots from the pro offense employed by Lockport West. Highland has a strong arm and the fans will probably see much aerial activity. Highland should have time to pick out his receivers with a line close to the 200 lb. average which makes it a might difficult for the opposition.

Wide receivers include Rick Columbo, Dave Cichy, Bob Colbin and Guy Gordon. Columbo also will be doing double-duty as a member of the backfield.

Along with Columbo in the backfield will be John Tabis, Chuck Williams and Bill Ryan. Chuck Brandon, backup quarterback, will undoubtedly see lots of action during the season.

The strong turnout for the varsity squad indicates a strong athletic appetite among the male contingent at Lockport West. Whether this desire to play can be nourished to a fervent desire to win remains to be seen.

If the Spartans put it all together they will have some kind of team.

Lincoln-Way Drilled

Congenial Bill Vogel, coach of the Lincoln-Way High School varsity football team, was a busy man the day I visited the school. The team was on the practice field undergoing the innumerable drills associated with fielding the best possible combination of offense and defense.

The coach watched intensely as his 34 weekend warriors completed their calisthenics. A few of the less enthusiastic athletes were prodded into more exertion and then the defensive and offensive squads were put to work.

Coach Vogel has 17 lettermen in the 1969 edition of L.W.H.S. team, a defensive line averaging 220 lbs., an offensive line averaging 180 lbs. and a backfield coming in a 165 lbs. He seems satisfied with the speed and determination of his ends who, he says, have good hands and the intestinal fortitude the position demands.

D. Hall, quarterback, will engineer the "I" formation offense as tutored by Vogel. Halfbacks J. Minger, D. Bedenbaugh, R. Lenich, H. Erriek, H. Weed (co-captain) and fullback M. Delay will contribute to the backfield talent. Co-captain B. Tyler, a tackle of respectable proportions, showed considerable speed and savvy.

The multiple offense, running out of the "I," seems to work well for this team. Despite some lack of communication during some plays the recovery was good and perhaps this is the team to watch for the outstanding games of the season.

Tinley Park was their first opponent Sept. 13 on the L.W.H.S. field.

L-W Blanks Tinley To Start Season

Lincoln - Way's varsity football team preserved tradition last Saturday. The Knights have not lost an opening game for donkey's years and this year was no exception.

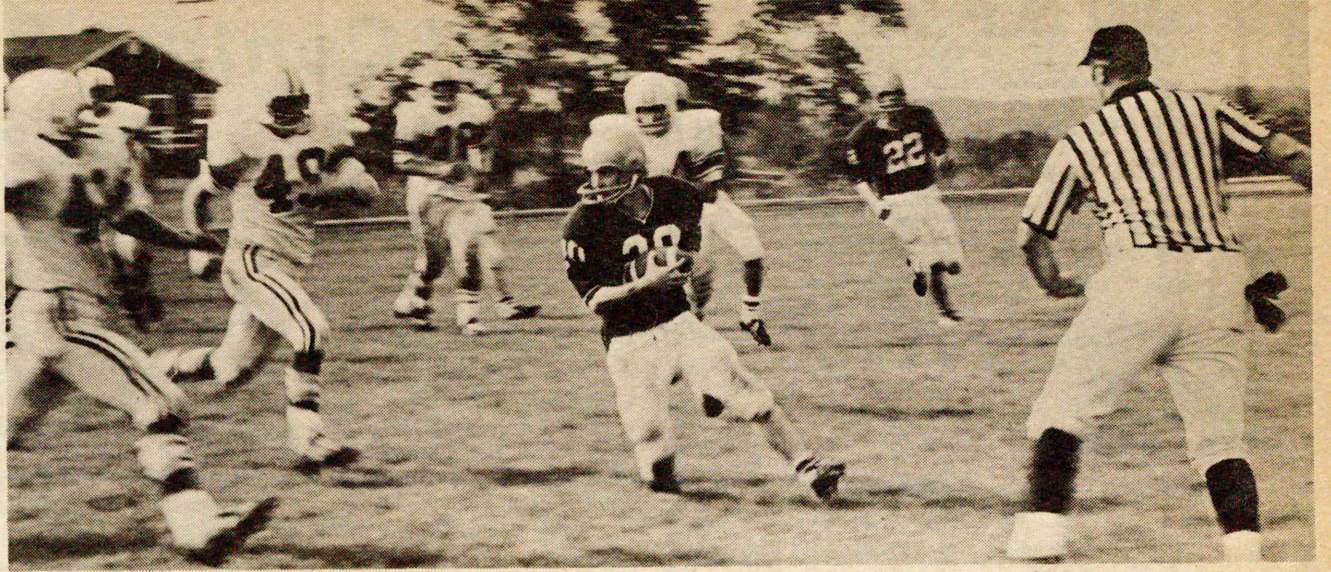

Tinley High School, a non-conference foe, was the opposition. As host school Lincoln-Way was not very considerate of its guests. When the final signal came the Knights were on top of a 26 to 0 score.

Harold Webb, who was in the pilot house for Lincoln-Way scored three of the Knights touchdowns one of them after intercepting a Tinley pass. Webb scored his team's first touchdowns on one of those plays that appear brilliant when they come off and far from brilliant if they don't. Penalties had set Lincoln-Way back and when fourth down came up the Knights had four yards to go. Webb executed a pretty fake and then galloped 33 yards for the TD.

Lincoln-Way essayed to run for its extra points and finally made a couple on a pass from Webb to Palka.

Lincoln-Way scored once in the first frame, twice in the second and once in the fourth. That fourth quarter TD was the one that was followed with extra points. L-W made 11 first downs, Tinley 9. In rushing the Knights made 280 yards to 73 for Tinley but netted only 40 yards on passing to 84 for Tinley. Otis made the other touchdown for Lincoln-Way.

Celtics Lose To Stagg

Providence High School football team lost its opening game to Stagg High, of Worth, 27 to 6.

The Celtics are short on manpower but are a game, tenacious outfit.

When the two teams took the field last Saturday Providence didn't have enough players to field two teams. It had 18 boys on the field that made up the varsity squad. Later several sophomores were conscripted following their game to add to the ranks.

The Stagg team registered two quick TD's in the first quarter but were held scoreless in the second and third periods. Then in the final quarter the Chargers scored two more touchdowns.

They missed for an extra point in the first quarter so the final score was 27 to 6, the Celtics having scored in the second period when Quarterback Ken Shroba hit Steve Joutras with a pass and Joutras ran 20 yards to score. Providence tried to run the conversion for two points but failed.

Providence fumbles were an aid to Stagg. On their second touchdown, for instance, Stagg had been held for downs on the one yard line, but Providence fumbled on its first play and the Chargers Mike Wilfinger fell on the ball in the end zone for six points. The kick for the extra point was wide, however.

Stagg made 181 yards rushing to 54 for Providence. The Celtics however, made 81 yards by passing to 28 for Stagg. First downs were about even, Providence had 11, Stagg 12.

THE ONLY touchdown the Lockport West made in Saturday's game against Downer Grove South came when Terry Cossairt (70) recovered a Downer Grove fumble and ran for the touchdown. The final score was Downers 27, Lockport 7 for the Spartans' season opener. (GRAPHIC Photo)

Frosh-Soph Win 26-8 In Opener

LEMONT -- Lemont High's frosh-soph unit, playing under the direction of Coaches Bob Voss and Al Albrecht, opened the proceedings at Carl Sandburg last Saturday, by coming through with a 26-8 win over a willing Chicago Christian crew.

The local yearlings appeared to be in command from the very first series of downs, setting the Palos lads back 14 yards in 3 attempts. The ensuing punt was downed on the Lemont 47 yard line.

With speedster Jim Weck supplying the ground punch, plus a George Otto to John Dunn 22 yard pass play, the "Little Injuns" moved to a score in 7 plays. Otto capped the drive with a 1 yard push.

Another Otto to Dunn over-head maneuver accounted for Lemont's second tally midway through the second quarter. Dunn shook off several tacklers on a pass and ran play good for 64 yards and a touchdown. Jim Clark converted to give Lemont a 13-0 lead.

Christian was on the scoreboard 4 plays later, when after faking a punt, a lad by the name of Lolrop swept his way clear of Lemont defenders along the way to a 63 yard scoring sortie.

Jim Weck returned the following kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown, but the play was called back because of a clipping infraction, as the first half came to an end with Lemont on top 13-6.

There was no recall on Weck's next scoring jaunt. This time Jim sprinted 73 yards to give us a 20-6 lead late in the third period.

Lemont's final fourth quarter counter was the result of another successful 53 yard pass from George Otto to John Dunn. Chicago Christian then added a safety to their total on the final play of the game.

Lemont Rebounds With 4 TD's, Beat Christian

LEMONT -- The Lemont High 1969 varsity football team spotted Chicago Christian an early 2 touchdown lead, but then bounced back to score 4 of their own and win last Saturday afternoon.

The athletic facilities of Carl Sandburg High served as the base of operations for this non conference tilt.

Chicago Christian, featuring a sparkling Cal Brown to Ross Bacon passing combination, stuck overhead for a game total of 253 yards, while Lemont was ground gunning at a 247 yard rate.

Brown and Bacon struck early on a 52 yard pass and run touchdown, and repeated the same maneuver at the 11 minute mark of the second period. Their second foray was good for a total of 79 yards.

After Fred Berndt had returned the ensuing kickoff to Lemont's 40, quarterback Mike Hennebry directed Lemont on a 60 yard payoff drive.

The hard running of backs Ken Hutchinson and John Schwer, plus a Hennebry to Dennis Bubinus aerial, were all vital factors as the locals dented the scoring column for the first time. The conversion try failed.

Lemont drove 73 yards for the equalizer midway through the third stanza. Once again Schwer and Hutchinson provided the initial impetus. A 15 yard pass from Hennebry to flanker Pierce Spencer also was a needed tonic to progress to Chicago Christians' 22 yard stripe.

Hard running Mark Sniogowski then found a gaping hole on his own left side and ate up the remaining yardage with his single thrust. Hennebry then passed to lanky end Mike Heinz for a 2 pointer, as Lemont took the lead for the first time at 14-12.

The Christians were further bedeviled early in the fourth quarter when an alert John Schwer picked off an errant throw in the flat and sped 15 yards into touchdown territory. The missed conversion still left Lemont vulnerable at 20-12.

This situation was remedied the next time the locals gained ball possession. Still using the grind it out approach, Lemont moved 57 yards in 13 plays to ice the contest at 26-12. Hennebry added the final 4, but it was his 10 yard pass to Spencer, plus the leather lugging of Hutchinson and Schwer which supplied the right catalyst.

Lemont and Dwight come to grips down in the tall corn country on Friday evening, Sept. 19. Both clubs will be hoping to get off on the right foot in this opening Northeast Conference venture.

Curtain raising frosh-soph action is set for 6 p.m., while the varsity forces take over the gridiron at approximately 8 p.m.

Carrying the big load up front as Lemont moved to 247 yards on the ground against Chicago Christian were Ends, Dennis Bubinus, Mike Heinz; tackles, John Benda, Rich Gendeman; guards, Ray Kluga, John Roth; center, Dan Zolecki.

Open With 47-0 Win

By RUSS SANDBERG

LEMONT -- Lemont's entry in the West Suburban Pop Warner Football League launched the 1969 campaign in impressive style, as they decisively defeated host Glen Ellyn 47-0 a week from Sunday.

The Golden Hornets, who were winless in their initial 1968 Pop Warner campaign, perhaps have now served notice that they can no longer be taken lightly.

Besides Lemont and Glen Ellyn, other area communities comprising this 8-team circuit are Tinley Park, Romeoville, New Lenox, Markham, Midlothian and Crestwood.

Coach Pete Polk's crew began asserting their strength early. On the opening kickoff, halfback Hayden Reeves rambled 70 yards for a touchdown.

Shortly after, fullback Dave Gorski moved 48 yards to add another local tally. Additional first quarter frosting was added when Reeves sped 17 yards into touchdown territory.

Early in the second period, Gorski matched Reeves 2 touchdown total with a 40 yard score. Quarterback Rick Sniogowski upped Lemont's ante to 33-0 when he turned a Glen Ellyn punt into a 40-yard scoring foray.

The tempo slowed in the second half, but additional markers were garnered on a 7 yard sprint by Sniogowski, plus another 22 yard jaunt by Hayden Reeves.

The Golden Hornets rarely had to resort to their aerial game, as they produced a total of 221 yards on the ground. Quarterback Rick Sniogowski hit on 2 of 3 pass attempts for an additional 14 yards.

Defensively, Lemont was led by linebacker John Stanton and end Duane Koski, who accounted for 11 and 7 individual tackles respectively.

Head Coach Pete Polk, along with assistants Bernie Kazich, Don Wiegand and Don Heeg, expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the overall play of their entire squad.

Comprising the offensive unit were ends, Duane Koski, Ed Davis; tackles, Keith Watson, Ken Zezulka; guards, Mark Barnett, Reynold Jacobson; center, Jack Bambrick; quarterback, Rick Sniogowski; backs, Dave Gorski, Hayden Reeves, and flanker, Fred Reeves.

Helping to hold Glen Ellyn scoreless were ends, Charley Dvorak, Duane Koski; tackles, Mark Barnett, Kevin Lindberg; nose man, Tom Leffler; linebackers, John Stanton, Dave Gorski, Ken Zezulka, Rick Jakuse; deep men, Rick Sniogowski, Hayden Reeves. Also getting in on a piece of the action were Glen Vann, Cary Dowat, Mark Fisher, Keith Melville.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

Neighbors and friends are quick to offer their help in times of bereavement. We hear it repeatedly, "Is there anything we can do?"

Occasionally there is something which the bereaved would like a friend or neighbor to help with, and we pass on these requests.

This spirit of helpfulness is commendable and is always appreciated.

Respectfully,

Boys' Contest By Ford Set

SOUTHWEST -- Registration for the ninth annual Punt, Pass and Kick competition for area boys ages eight through thirteen is Friday, Oct. 10.

Participating is D & M Motors, 112 Main St., Lemont and all area youngsters are invited to register for the competition there.

More than 1,100,000 youngsters across the country are expected to participate in the program which is co-sponsored annually by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company and the National Football League.

Any boy is eligible by registering at D&M through October 10. There is no body contact; no entrance fee; no special equipment is needed; and participation does not impair a youth's amateur standing.

Entrants in the Punt, Pass and Kick program compete only against boys their own age. Scoring is based on distance and accuracy with one point added for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance, and a point subtracted for each foot a ball lands to the right or left of a centerline.

The 1969 divisional competitions will be held December 13 during the half time of the Dallas-Baltimore game at Dallas and December 14 during the half time of the Detroit-Los Angeles game in Detroit. The finals will highlight the half time activity of the NFL Playoff Bowl game at the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla., January 3.

The 96 area winners (48 each from the eastern and western parts of the country) participate in the divisional competition. The 12 divisional finalists (one in each age group from each division) then travel to Miami, with their parents, for the nationally televised finals.

Carrying 45-15 To State

View has 967 students; Brook View, 451; North View, 939; Park View, 1,314; Ridge View, 438; and West View Junior High, 1,183.

Six fire extinguishers valued at $25 each were taken from buses at North View School in Bolingbrook over the weekend.

Saturday was the first day the school gate was unlocked for the public's use of the blacktop area for recreational purposes. An agreement between the Bolingbrook village board and the school board states the facility will be available on a 30 day trial basis.

A discussion ensued on the payment of a crossing guard in the Bolingbrook area. According to the board, the Bolingbrook village officials did not levy for such payment although last year they told the school board they would do so this year. Bolingbrook has one paid crossing guard at Rt. 53 and Briarcliff Rd.

School board will notify Bolingbrook officials they will cease paying the guard after Oct. 1. According to law, school boards are not permitted to pay crossing guards in villages. This is to be paid for by the villages. Romeoville village board has been paying the crossing guards in its area.

Three teachers were hired. David Frazer will teach industrial arts and Frank Perino music at West View while Sandra Butchart will teach first grade at Brook View School.

Tax Could Cover Bonds

ceived by the village board, is that no permits until the treatment plant is improved.

The required improvements can be made, the village is assured, if it can raise $300,000. The water system will have to wait, it was agreed, but the sewage treatment problem has to be met now.

At the village board meeting last Wednesday representatives of financial advisors for New Lenox assured trustees they had buyers for the $300,000 bond issue. Dwight Egle, cashier of the New Lenox State Bank, had attended the previous meeting and indicated the bank would be interested in aiding the village. So between the bank and the buyers the advisors have on hand the village is assured that it can dispose of the bonds.

The village board also is prepared to adopt an ordinance earmarking its share of the state sales tax to retire the bonds and pay the interest. As of Oct. 1 the village will get a full cent of the five collected by the state under the sales tax law on services as well as goods.

According to the information given village trustees the sales tax will be adequate for paying off these bonds and the interest so it will not be necessary to levy any taxes on real or personal property of village residents.

Salary figures have not entered the latest discussions.

John Cirricione, attorney for the district, inquired as to the board's intentions on the tentative annexation of the Lockport West campus to the Romeoville Fire District. The Board noted the improved fire and police protection available if this annexation were to take place.

June 30 and was attended by 1,015 students.

Steve Platko, board member and chairman of the personnel and policy committee commented on the new contract for district teachers. A tentative agreement reached at the close of last year has still not been signed due to certain problems concerning working conditions.
